CALL TO ORDER

TOPICS

- Comprehensive Plan

The City Council is quickly approaching the target date of September 25 for adoption of the Fredericksburg Comprehensive Plan. The Planning Commission has approved the latest draft, dated August 2007.

During the August 21 joint meeting of the City Council and the Planning Commission at 6 p.m., the staff will lead the group through the main elements of the Plan. We ask that Council pay particular attention to the new sections, including Chapter 17: Planning Areas.

The City Council wishes to applaud the Planning Commission for its dedication and hard work on developing this blueprint for City land use.

Here is the remaining schedule:

August 21	Joint Work Session
September 11	Public Hearing
September 25	Council Adoption
September 26	Implementation and Initial Work on Zoning Ordinance Changes
